

Nog for a cause

Daily (ends December 31)

Being as though National Eggnog Month is officially upon us, Mount Gay Rum seems to be taking the...holiday (?) seriously and doing some caloric goodness by joining up with Mr. goodwill himself, Donald Trump—or at least, with one of his properties. All this month, World Bar will be serving a special blend of nog created by "mixologist" Jonathan Pogash. Go ahead and drink up—for every $12 glass of nog sold, a donation of one dozen eggs will be made to City Harvest. Ah, nothing like boozing for a cause (a real cause).
