ROCCA KITCHEN & BAR OPENING

On April 19th, Glenmorangie Scotch and Esquire co-hosted the opening night party of ROCCA kitchen & bar in Boston. ROCCA co-owners Michela Larson, Gary Sullivan and Karen Haskell of The Sapphire Group welcomed over 800 friends, raised glasses and sampled tastes from the restaurant's Ligurian menu expertly prepared by Executive Chef Tom Fosnot.

The restaurant, a beautifully converted Victorian factory, was the ideal backdrop for such a celebration as guests could cozy up in the lounge, chat in the expansive dining room or sip a Glenmorangie Jetsetter on the patio.
