

Newsweek

ALCOHOL

War's Liquor Legacy

EVERY AMERICAN WAR HAS INSPIRED A COCKTAIL. There's the Artillery Punch (Civil War), the French 75 (WWI), the Kamikaze (WWII) and the Napalm shot (Vietnam). So what about Iraq? The top contenders are still battling it out. Here are the latest shots served around the world: -TONY DOKOUPIL

■ World Peace: A diplomatic gin martini served at the World Bar, across the street from the U.N.

■ Dirty Bomb: A Jäger shot dropped in a pint of Red Bull and pounded at Sacramento's Bar R15

■ Bin Laden: A tastefully tasteless shot of Pernod and Tabasco sauce, courtesy of BarMeister.com

■ Blood & Oil: A cran-vodka play on the classic 'Blood and Sand,' served at Bar R15